

Summer 2011 Rules and Regulations

Regarding Payment

- Manhattan Youth Ballet will not issue a refund under any circumstance.
- Deposits must be received by deadline stated in acceptance letter. After this deadline has passed, placement in the Summer Intensive 2011 is not guaranteed and participants will be considered for enrollment only if space allows.
- In order to be fully enrolled for the Summer Intensive 2011, the tuition along with a completed registration form is due by June 1st, 2011. This is not refundable under any circumstance. If full payment is not received by June 1st, 2011 it is possible for the student to lose their spot in the program.
- All checks written to Manhattan Youth Ballet returned unpaid will incur a $50.00 fee.
- Should a student become unable to attend, be dismissed for reasons determined by the directors, be excessively absent or fail to attend classes, or withdraw from the program for any reason, the student or the student's legal guardian is obligated to pay the entire tuition fee, without deduction or refund

Regarding Attendance and Behavior

- Students will not be allowed to participate in class if they arrive 10 minutes after the class has begun. Students who arrive more than 10 minutes late to class must sit and observe.
- If it is necessary for a student to be absence from class an email must be sent to the Manhattan Youth Ballet office (mybnetwork@manhattanyouthballet.org) to notify us of the absence
- Students must adhere to the school dress code for all classes and rehearsals. Students who do not adhere to the dress code will not be permitted to take class.
- Students are expected to behave properly and courteously at all times. Public displays of affection are discouraged and should be kept to a minimum.
- The use of cigarettes, drugs, and alcohol are strictly prohibited in and around the premises of MMAC.
- Eating or drinking (except water) is forbidden in the studios. Any students caught eating and/or drinking in the studios will be warned initially and, should such behavior continue, may be dismissed.
- Students are expected to help keep the studio buildings and grounds clean and neat by putting all trash in the appropriate receptacles.
- Manhattan Youth Ballet is not responsible for lost or stolen items. Students are to store their belongings neatly in the places provided for them. Items which students feel need to be kept with them are permitted to leave them against the wall in the studio in which they are taking class. Dance shoes and clothing should be marked with the student's name for easy identification.
- Manhattan Youth Ballet is not liable for personal injuries, or the well-being of any students who leave the premises.

Regarding Performances

- To be eligible to participate in the Summer Intensive Performance, students must be enrolled for the full three weeks of the Summer Intensive, attend all classes and rehearsals.
- All casting decisions are made by the Artistic Director and are non-negotiable.
- From time to time photographers and/or film crews will be present photographing or filming Manhattan Youth Ballet classes and/or rehearsals. Permission for resulting photographs and/or film footage that include either students or students' guardians is assumed to be granted in perpetuity by them for promotional purposes on television, magazines or any other media.

Manhattan Youth Ballet admits students of any race, color, sexual orientation, national and ethnic origin, with all rights and privileges, to programs and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school. It does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, sexual orientation, national and ethnic origin in administration of its education policies, admission policies, scholarship programs or any other school- administrated programs.

Parent's Signature _____

Date _____

Student's Signature _____

Date _____